William¹ Hedge, b. in England; m. probably 1st and 2d Blanche Hull, a widow. He was a freeman of Lynn May 14, 1634. He was probably the soldier in the Pequot war of his surname, who was well mentioned, and was called a gentleman of Northhamptonshire. He removed to Sandwich and from there to Yarmouth.(b) He brought suit in Essex county in 1637.(c) He was styled gentleman and Mr. in the records in 1638 and after. He took the oath of fidelity in Sandwich.(d) He is first mentioned in the Plymouth Colony records Nov. 5, 1638, when for the consideration of £12 sterling he assigned to Gov. Thomas Prentice the unexpired term of service of Robert Wicksen(e) due him under an indenture.(f) Dec. 4, 1638, he was fined for keeping a hog unringed.(g) April 16, 1640, he received 14 acres of meadow land in Sandwich.(h)

May 3, 1642, Mr. Hedge of Yarmouth won a suit for 14 bushels of corn from Walter Devell.(i) In August, 1643, he is among those between 16 and 60 in Yarmouth able to bear arms.(j)

In 1643 he had a controversy with Richard Hore of Yarmouth about six acres of meadow which had formerly been given to the church. It was decided that the church was to hold the land and Hedge might sue him or them that sold him the same.(k)

March 6, 1648-9, he was presented by the grandjury for letting an Indian have a gun, powder and shot. His wife was presented for receiving stolen goods.(l) June 9, 1650, with Robert Dennis he was on a bond for the appearance of John Besthope, and they were given till the next court to produce him.(m) In 1650 he appears as constable of Yarmouth.(n)

He had a controversy with Robert Nash of Boston respecting cattle and sued him for £11. The jury March 6, 1649-50, awarded him £8 and the charges of the suit, and left him to sue concerning the yearlings and the rest of the cows included in the suit.(o) Oct. 2, 1650, he was one of the plaintiffs in a suit against William Nickerson.(p) Oct. 5, 1652, he was presented for selling wine and strong waters in Yarmouth without license.(q) June 9, 1653, he was approved as ensign bearer of the military company of Yarmouth.(r)

Feb. 24, 1652-3, he was sworn as one of the jurors to lay out a way from Sandwich to Plymouth, and on the 27th he signed their report.(s) Aug. 7, 1655, he was ordered to exercise the military company.(t) In 1656 the estate of John Darby, deceased, was indebted to him.(t1) Oct. 2, 1658, he was appointed on the council of war.(u) Oct. 2, 1658, he was fined 10s. for threatening Edward Sturgis.(v) June 7, 1659, he was on the grand-jury.(w) Aug. 2, 1659, he was approved as captain of the military company of Yarmouth.(x) In October, 1659, as one of a jury of inquest he signed the verdict in the case of the death of Mary Chase of Yarmouth.(y) June 3, 1662, he was again appointed captain of the military company of Yarmouth.(z)

In 1662, 1663 and 1664 Mr. Hedge brought into Yarmouth liquors, powder, shot and lead.(a) June 18, 1666, he was witness to a letter of William Nickerson to the Plymouth Court.(b)

He died between June 30, 1670, date of his will, and July 5, 1670, the date when the order was given for his executor to appear at Plymouth to prove his will and inventory.(c) They were proved Aug. 11, 1670, and letters testamentary were then granted to his executor Elisha Hedge.(d) The will mentions his sons Abraham, Elisha, William, John, and Elemeuel, his daughters Sarah Matthews, Elizabeth Barnes, Mary Sturgis and Marcy (Mercy) Hedge, his sister Brookes (to whom he gives £30 in Virginia due him from her deceased husband), and his wife Blanche, who had left him, to whom he gives 12d. and to whom he directs to be returned what he had received of hers. The will also says: "likewise it is my mind and Will that my sister Brookes shall have livelyhood amongst my Children see Longe as she Continues a widow." He appoints his son Elisha sole executor and makes "my beloved friends Mr. Thomas Thornton Mr. Edmond howes [should be Hawes] and Richard Taylor, tayler," overseers.(e) The inventory of his estate amounted to £487 16s.(f)
